Loads of Lemonade Event with Jennifer Aniston

NEW YORK, N.Y.—Jennifer Aniston will be speaking at Alex's Lemonade Stand Foundation's, (ALSF) Loads of Lemonade, on Saturday, May 4, at the Central Park Zoo. The event will begin at 11 a.m. and will be accepting donations in return for some sweet, fresh lemonade.

Alex, the founder of ALSF, was just four years old when she died of cancer. Her parents, Liz and Jay Scott, now run the foundation in her honor. Loads of Lemonade will mark the first time the foundation is pairing up with the Central Park Zoo. Liz Scott stated, "We're extremely excited about this event. Alex loved animals and I think that if she were here she would be proud of all that we have planned."

ALSF is hoping for a big turn out at this event and has set a goal to raise $10,000. Since childhood cancer is so little funded, ALSF wants to ensure it keeps fundraising to find a cure, one stand at a time.

ABOUT ALEX'S LEMONADE STAND FOUNDATION: Alex's Lemonade Stand Foundation (ALSF) is changing the lives of children with cancer by funding impactful research, raising awareness, supporting families and empowering everyone to help cure childhood cancer. In the past 15 years, the foundation has raised over $150 million.
